P.C. :

1. Mr. Patil counsel for the appellants state that the appellants are not contacting him for last number of years. He had sent letters. There is no response. Ultimately he sent a notice by RPAD on 9.6.2005 in two envelopes. Both the envelopes have been returned to him with the remark "not claimed". Both the envelopes are taken on record. In view of this, he prays that he may be discharged in the above appeal. Prayer granted. Advocate Patil is discharged.

2. From the very remark on the envelopes it is clear that the appellants are not interested to proceed with the matter. Hence, Appeal is dismissed along with Civil Applications, as they do not survive.
